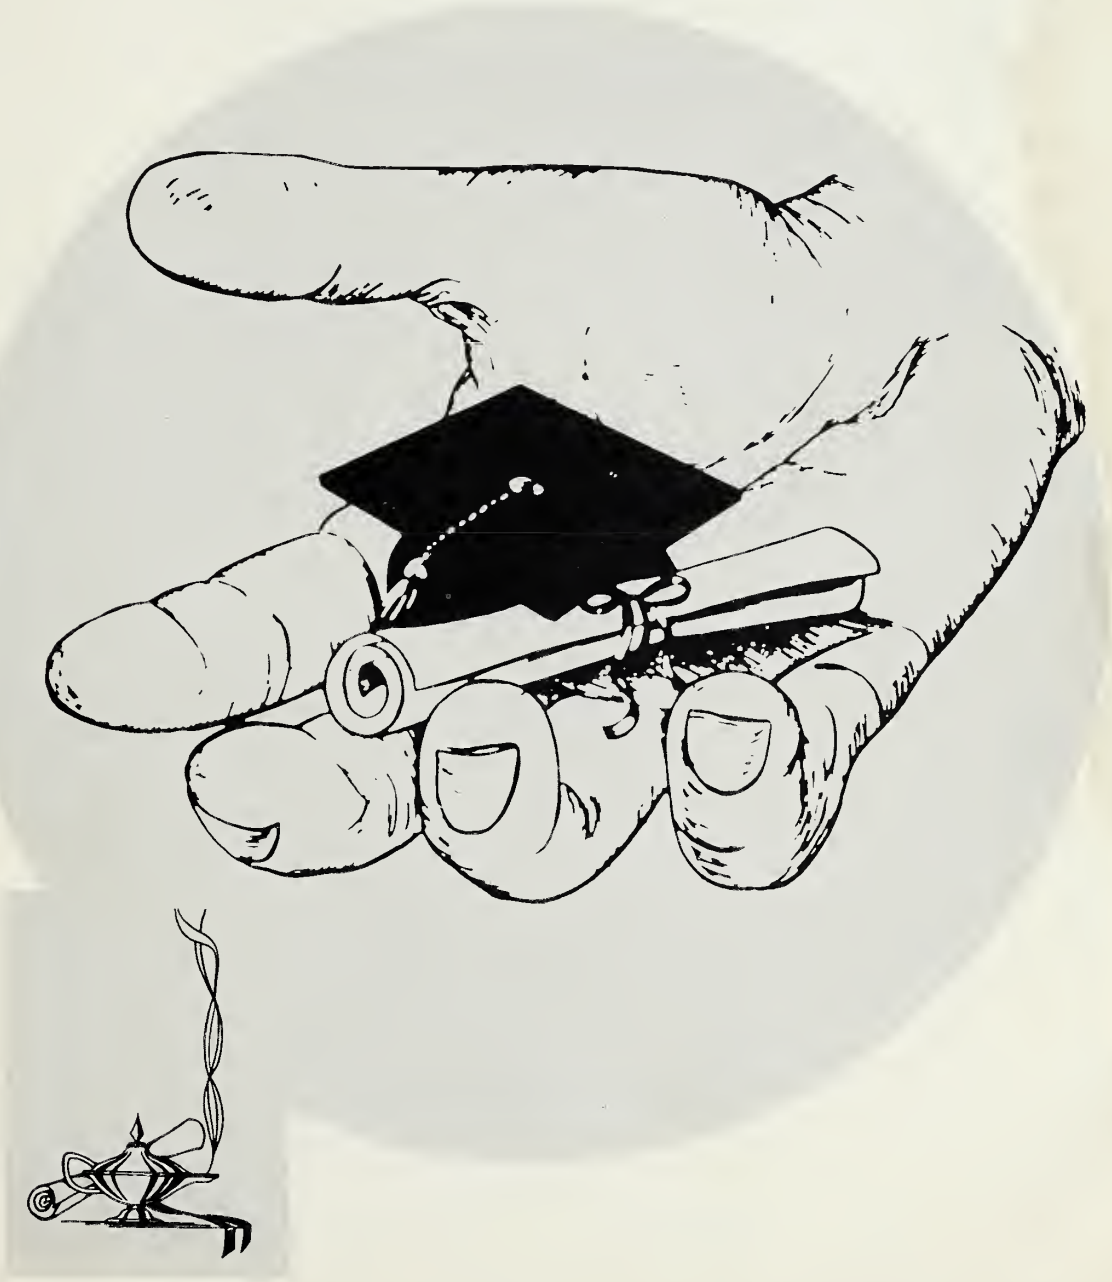
PROLOGUE

"We shall not be beat" the ever echoing words of our football team. This Motto we have seen personified in all the activities at E. E. Smith. The curious, searching minds at our library, the fervorous tones in the singing of our school song, and the zeal found here at Smith were constant reminders of our theme at work.

Along this road where the ultimate goal is graduation we have encountered success as well as failure, joys and sorrows, moments of study and moments of fun. Because we can look back and see where success triumphed over failure, joy won over sorrow, we have wonderful memories.

This Smithsonian is thusly the fulfillment of three years of our hopes and dreams. Enjoy with us these our "Treasured Memories".



DEDICATED TO

Mr. Newkirk, you are our most unforgettable character. We shall always remember the many times we saw you at every game, in the halls of our institution, and last but surely not least behind the wheel of our "Mighty Goose". You are a man of few words, but you have the outspoken qualities that every true Smithite should have--always ready, willing, and able. These traits have been outstandingly shown in your nine years of service to our school. From the bottom of our hearts, we the class of 1964 dedicate the Smithsonian to you.

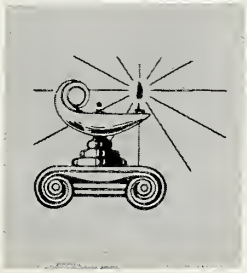
"THE GOOSE"

A MEMORIAL

In Loving Memory Of

Though departed from us the dear friend who left, is here in spirit. We will remember him as one of those whose endeavors were ended early, but will live on and on.

William Hales



Treasured Memories

We stand here now on the threshold of a memory,
And to these days our minds doth flee.
We know if We should close this door,
This part of life is closed forever more.

But life at Smith will forever be,
Just a treasured memory.
And while We can remember it so clear,
We turn to look back at the things We held dear.

The clanging and banging at locker time,
Mixed with happy voices to form a distant chime.
The halls where we played, laughed, and walked,
The rooms where we studied, sang, and talked.

The intramurals--we won our share,
Or the other teams just weren't fair.
The classes we cut or gladly missed,
We remember moments like this.

How many times we did excitedly repeat,
Words that echo "we shall not be beat."
The good times we had at those games,
Treasured memories never to come again.

Miss Homecoming, oh none could compare,
Her beauty, charm, and sweetness so rare.
The Homecoming dance We remember too,
That dreamy music and oh yes you!

The wonderful play our class gave,
All the times We stood on that stage.
All We can do now is utter a sigh,
In memory of treasured moments gone by.

We remember all the clubs too,
And all the things we used to do.
All the important meetings we had,
The projects that worked good and bad.

We remember that Thanksgiving dinner in white,
Turkey with lots of cranberry sauce to our delight.
We remember that Christmas Party too,
The years We wore red and green or white and blue.

We remember the beautiful May Day scene,
And how We missed a step on the green.
Our lovely May Queen all in white,
These are the moments when all was right.

And now our year seems almost through,
We look forward to wearing those robes of blue,
We can hear the tantalizing far away tune,
Of the graduation song--that day will come too soon.

But now we must close this door,
For there are higher heights we must explore.
But looking back on all our joys and strife,
We now realize that leaving Smith will be the beginning of life.

For Whom Our School is Named

Dr. Ezekiel Ezra Smith

Because of his endless endeavors in the field of education, E. E. Smith Senior High School was named for this outstanding educator. We are proud to have the name of a loyal, industrious, ambitious, and successful product of high aspirations given our school.

With sounds of highest praise and admiration we sing . . . .

Smith High, we love thy name

Be thou our guide,

With deep affection and recollection,

Our Alma Mater thou,

Under thy sheltering arms,

We'll stand always, and sing in the praises of our Smith High School.

ADMINISTRATION

Principal's Message
A Message to the Seniors of 1964

Mr. Miller

I extend to you hearty congratulations on the publication of the 1964 Smithsonian, which is an expression of the adventure upon which you are embarking.

Every effort has been made to make your years at E. E. Smith rich opportunities of educational experiences which furnish a foundation for successful living. We encourage you to choose wisely, to plan imaginatively, and to work industriously in evolving a career of which you and the school can be proud.

In future years it will be a real source of pleasure for you to review your years at Smith. As you look at the pictures of your classmates and teachers; know that we have faith in you. We respect your ability and judgement, and we know that you will do well. May you always sing "Smith High We Love Thy Name".
